At midnight on 16 January 1953, a radio truck guarded by two sentries was seen at a clearing on the Gross Naundorf-Reichenbach road. Two lieutenant colonels wearing red-bordered silver epaulets and two senior lieutenants with tank insignia were seen at a nearby camp fire. Troops observed engaged in laying cables from the radio truck into snow houses which were at a field and had one telephone connection each. Sentries who wore red-bordered black epaulets were seen along the road at intervals of 50 meters. At 12:10 a.m., two containers, [redacted] were food containers. were unloaded [redacted]
